Tales of Gross Brutality at To- day while Day's Investigation.

SAMUEL GROSS.

The story of his awful abuse of the Czar-like power was continued this morning before Mr. Litchfield and Dr. Smith, of the Committee of the State Board of Charities, in Parlor L, at the Astor House.

The proceedings began with Samuel Grous, of 248 East Third street, who has been employed at wood-carving since his discharge Aug. 30, after a three years.

discharge Aug. 30, after a three years term in Brockway's torture-house.

"I was sixteen years old when I was sent to Elmira in 1890 for burgiary, said Gross. "I was only five feet high, I weighed 130 pounds, I weigh 113 pounds now. I am ruptured and injured for life as the result of my sufferings at the hands of Brockway and Principal Keeper Winnie and their men.

er Winnie and their men.

"I got my first punishment for speaking to another immate. I was reported. Brockwry came up to me and said:

"I'll teach you to talk you——!" and he struck me in the eye with his fist. I was taken to the bathroom and paddled about six blows.

"Again I write on a piece of paper, Give me $50 on his name, and then put on Bruckway's 'zip' that he O.K.ed bills with. I was reported for that, and they took me to the bathroom. When they showed the note to Bruckway he said:

"I'll give you $50 on that name.

Day's Investigation.

If there is any reliance to be placed on the ancient proverb, 'Out of the mouth of many witnesses the truth shall be spoken,' there is dready an accumulation of proofs of the health brutality of Z. R. Brockway, General Superintendent of the Emira Reformatory for youthful prisoners and first soffenders, to condemn him to overy honest mind.

Regarding the report published this morning that the 'iroadway Cable Railroad Company would attempt to shirk the payment of its percentages to the city. Comptroller Myers said to an "Evening World" reporter: "I don't believe it is the intention of the Broadway Cable Company to evade payment. The Company owed the city 156,000, and paid something like $7,000 of it. I think that shows an intention to pay. They owe us $25,000, for which a bill has been rendered. "I'ntil the Company refuses to pay it is useless to go into conjectures of what the city might lose by the Company refuse.	Operio 104 Inspector C.
